GOLDBERG MAKES U.S. SENATE CANDIDACY OFFICIAL CAMPAIGN FILES PAPERWORK, ANNOUNCES TREASURER

OLD BRIDGE, NJ – Brian D. Goldberg, Republican Candidate for U.S. Senate, has filed the necessary paperwork to run for the United States Senate and has announced his selection of a campaign Treasurer this morning.

“I’m thrilled to be able to officially announce that I’m seeking to challenge Senator Cory Booker this November.” said Brian D. Goldberg upon filing paperwork with the Secretary of the Senate. “Republicans need a positive, unwavering and effective messenger to give voice to common sense solutions in the U.S. Senate.”

“I’m in this race because we need to get America working again. Jobs will be my highest priority when I replace Senator Booker next year. Instead of fighting for extended unemployment and expanding the welfare-state, I’ll be concerned with making government smaller, less expensive and paving the way for economic growth.”

“The U.S. Senate should be looking for ways to help the private sector expand its workforce. Empowering our most vulnerable to seize those new opportunities is how we’ll lift our economy out of stagnation. The answer won’t be found in more handouts as Senator Booker has been aggressively advocating.”

The Goldberg for U.S. Senate Campaign has also announced that Daniel Beckelman will be joining the campaign as its Treasurer. Daniel is an up-and-coming political operative who currently serves as the Hudson County Young Republican Chairman. “Daniel has played an integral role in organizing the youth Republican movement in an area of the state where his talents are most needed. He will be an excellent fit for our campaign, especially with our youth outreach intended to grow and ensure the future of the GOP.” said Brian Goldberg upon the selection of his Treasurer.

Brian D. Goldberg is running for U.S. Senate with a message of “Empowerment, Not Entitlement”. Visit www.Goldberg2014.com, or follow on Twitter @Brian4NJ for more information or email the campaign at press@Goldberg2014.com
