

Attendees:

I wish I could be there with you this evening, but I am attending the graduation ceremony for my oldest son, Kevin, who is completing pilot training at Vance Air Force Base in Oklahoma. Our family is so proud of Kevin's service and accomplishments, and I hope you understand why I couldn't attend tonight's debate.

Debates are vital to our country's democratic process, as it is a chance for voters to hear directly from the candidates about the issues most important to them. But as the Republican candidate for lieutenant governor who debated Loretta Weinberg and Milly Silva on TV, take it from me: while you may hear some differences of opinion tonight, they will be minor in comparison to the debate we must win in the fall against the tax and spend Democrats.

As Republicans in a blue state, the real battle isn't against each other. It's the work we must do together to build the Party and ensure Phil Murphy never gets anywhere close to the Governor's Office.

Thank you to the Middlesex County Young Republicans for hosting tonight's debate. I wish all those participating the best of luck this evening and look forward to sharing the stage with you at future events.

Sincerely,

Kim Guadagno
